Please note:

- This sheet is a part of the regular application documents. It is also necessary for the scheduling of the telephone or personal interview. Interviews will take place before and shortly after the end of the application period and are a necessary part of the application process.
- No questionnaire = incomplete application = no interview appointment
- In your own best interest, send the questionnaire back to us as early as possible!
- Writing a motivation letter is essential for a successful application!
- Applicants who are interested in taking their first semester in Valencia have to meet significantly earlier deadlines than the ones who set for Ansbach!
- Effect travel insurance at your home country and insure yourself at a German insurance agency when coming to Ansbach!
